Alonzo Monk, social chairman. The auxiliary was formed after a group of physicians took over the hospital to operate it as a non-profit institution.

Revival Services At Lomita Church

A series of Revival services will begin Sunday and extend through April 23, at the First Baptist Church, Lomita, located directly behind Vic Tanney's Gym, at 26366 Hillcrest and Western Ave., according to the pastor, Rev. James W. Hardin.

Dr. A. C. Donath, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church, El Monte, will be the evangelist, and W. A. Risinger, will direct the music. First Baptist Church will be cooperating with twenty-one other Southern Baptist Churches of the Long Beach Harbor area in a simultaneous crusade with Dr. E. Y. Dossey, Dallas, Texas serving as general director. Evangelistic Services will be held in each of the twenty-one Southern Baptist Churches each evening at 7:30 p.m. April 9-23.

Mr. Risinger, a Baptist layman and education director of the Lomita First Baptist Church, was born in Mangum, Oklahoma, and is an honor graduate of New Mexico State University. He has directed music for nine years. Recently he produced a new album of sacred music with Martha Fluke, San Pedro, at the Organ, and Barbara Nash, Wilmington, at the Piano. They along with Mrs. Oscar Nichols and a twenty-five voice choir may be heard each evening at the Lomita First Baptist Church.

Dr. Jones Preaches Sunday

Dr. R. Murray Jones has chosen the topic "After Easter" for his sermon at the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, April 9. Nursery care is provided each Sunday in the new nursery.

Church school is held every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the new buildings. The Junior High unit is almost completed. Dedication and open house of the completed educational plant is planned for Children's day.

'Ostrich' Topic of Seaside Sermon

"An Ostrich Without a Hole" will be the sermon topic on April 9 at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave., Torrance, at the 10 a.m. worship service, according to Rev. Wm. K. Schatz.

Mrs. Wm. Parker will accompany Mrs. Richard Evans and Mrs. C. L. Martin in the duet "Just For Today," by Seaver.

Child care is provided in the pre-school rooms during the morning worship for children through 7.

BONSAI EXHIBIT

The fourth annual Bonsai Exhibit, featuring the largest collection of miniature trees ever shown in this country, will be held April 2-9 at the California Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park.

Youth Week Noted At Baptist Church

Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita is observing their Annual Youth Week. The church elected a full core of workers from among their young who will fill the places ordinarily assumed by adults.

Youth Week pastor is Lyndell Taylor and music director will be Rager Rosendahl. Sunday school superintendent is Charles Kirkpatrick and training union director is John Earl Stroope. Instrumentalists for the week are Eva Harbrove and Diana Avery. They will have charge of the Sunday School on Sunday morning and the Training Union on Sunday evening. They will also conduct the evening worship service this Sunday. The youth Pastor will bring the message.

The Pastor Robert A. Wells will bring the message at the 8:30 and 10:50 services Sunday morning. The message will be the last in a two month series, "Great Events in the Life of Christ." This final sermon will be "A future Event." "When Jesus ascended he promised his followers 'He would so come in like manner.' Too often men live 'as though they never expected Jesus to return.'"

The Pastor will begin a Revival in the First Southern Baptist Church of Ventura with the evening service that will continue through April 16. The guest speaker for all services on Sunday, April 16, will be Reverend Grady Cothen, new executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention of California.
